The image that propelled Furano's floral attraction to the world can be seen for your very own eyes at Shikisai no Oka. Begin your day at the Chitose Rera Outlet Shopping Mall where major international brands keep you entertained for hours. In the Shiraoi Ainu Village, Ainu culture is exhibited in an outdoor reproduction of a small Ainu village. Noboribetsu is one of the most popular hot spring areas in Japan. 450m in diameter, with hot steam vents, sulphurous streams, and surrounded by red stone cliffs, the Noboribetsu Hell Valley is aptly named. Spend your night soaking in the hot springs of your hotel amidst the beauty and chill of the spring night.

DAY 04 NOBORIBETSU - LAKE TOYA - RUSUTSU (B / L / D)

Over in Hokkaido, you can “pluck your fruits and eat it too”. Fill your buckets and your stomachs with some of the sweetest seasonal fruits here. (If fruits picking are not in season, you can take the cruise around Lake Toya.) A key attraction in Hokkaido's Shikotsu-Toya National Park, the Mt Usu Ropeway brings you beautiful views of Mt Showa Shinzan and Lake Toya. You can start today at Kyogoku Fukidashi Park, where you can taste some of the best water in Japan as it had been filtered through Mt Yotei. Otaru was known as “Wall Street of the North” and the activity centered on the Otaru canal. It is lined with western-styled buildings from the Meiji period. Within the canal district are charming buildings housing music boxes at the Music Box Museum to exquisite glassworks in the Kitaichi Glass Museum. Tonbodama-making experience or glass bead making is something that you can enjoy in Otaru. Wing Bay Otaru has departmental stores, shopping outlets and the 100 Yen shop to satisfy any shopping urges that you might have. Tanaka Sake Museum is where you can see the history and development of Japan's favorite drink.
