Tour Itinerary (09:00 ~ 15:00)

Experience Japanese farm life by visiting terraced rice fields and an old farmhouse in Ogino-sato village where the villagers have protected the water sources as well as the rivers and lake for generations. The spirit of a community co-existing with nature and its clean water is still kept vibrant. The farmhouse couple demonstrates Mochi rice cake making following the traditional method using locally harvested rice. Participants are welcome to join in! Enjoy freshly made Mochi rice cakes with a variety of toppings. You can also take a stroll surrounded by the beautiful view of rice terraces and Lake Biwa as well as visit the local shrine. The village community has owned these rice fields for over 1300 years giving rise to unique forms of local rain and water worship. In the afternoon, participants will visit Ogoto hot spring resort, where the water quality is famous for its skin beautifying properties.
